A Peek at Our Week

We have continued to work on rituals and routines, and your students are doing a wonderful job! All of our centers have been introduced, and children spend time each day working in the different choice centers. This week art has been a big hit! We discussed tattling versus telling, and the children learned they will "go tell the president" when they are tattling. We are spending a lot of time on using kind words and being kind to our friends. Please encourage your child to use kind words at home also. Next week, will introduce our first letter of the week, and spend time throughout the week learning about that letter and the sound it makes.

ETC...
